S. S. Army Demands Drastic Food Regulation and Acceptance of Paper Money.

Coblenz, Feb. 5.—The civil affairs section of the third army have notified German authorities in the occupied area that drastic measures must be taken to enforce food regulations. Germans were warned that the Americans are not satisfied with the activities of the German food ministry, and that hereafter the third army will take no further action toward conservation of the food supply, the responsibility resting solely with the German officials.

The German authorities recently issued a proclamation that here after paper money—of which there are millions of marks in circulation in the Rhine provinces—will not be accepted as legal tender. OPEN HEALTH CAMPAIGN

Fairfax Accepts Offer of State And International Health Boards—Dr. E. L. Flanagan Designated to Take Charge of Works in That County.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 5.—Fairfax is one of the first Virginia counties to take advantage of the offer of the International Health Board and the State Board of Health to secure the services of a full time health officer at a minimum cost for a period of one year. Dr. E. L. Flanagan, who received a commission as captain in the Army Medical Corps, was designated by Dr. Ennion G. Williams, State Health Commissioner, to take charge of the work in Fairfax. Captain Flanagan was one of the first of the Health Department's staff to return to civil life following the signing of the armistice, and having previously served in the State as a field director was chosen for the special work in Fairfax.

Captain Flanagan, who passed through Richmond after leaving the army en route to Fairfax, said that he expects to confine much of his activity to the matter of soil pollution, although he will be at the head of all work for the general improvement of health conditions. Throughout the campaign he will make his headquarters at Fairfax Courthouse.

In order to carry forward this undertaking, the Board of Supervisors of Fairfax appropriated $4,000, and in keeping with announced plans this sum was increased by another $4,000 by the International Health Board and the State Board. The offer has also been extended other counties.

In connection with this work Captain Flanagan will have under his direction a corps of sanitary inspectors and nurses trained in public health work, whose services will be paid for from funds already arranged for and sufficient to last for twelve months

JEERS AT HUN JUNKERS

Persius Suggests Grand Admirals, "Smashers of England," Fish for Whales.

Amsterdam, Feb. 5.—"What'll we do with the former Kaiser's yacht, the Hohenzollern?" is the pathetic query of Capt. Lother Persius in the Berliner Tageblatt. Then he turns to the question of what to do with the two German grand admirals, six admirals, twelve vice admirals, twenty-two rear admirals, 100 sea captains and other naval officers.

Answering his own questions, Persius—who by the way, is retired, and is therefore not affected by the puzzle that the yacht, now rotting in some dock, the red flag flying from its topmast, be sold to a munitions millionaire, who might also be willing to take up yachting in German torpedo boats and destroyers.

Capt. Persius suggests that naval officers develop the fishing industry with Admirals, described as "smashers of England," directing the capture of whales, as a striking parody on the ex-Kaiser's boastful motto: "Our future lies upon the sea."

TEXTILE STRIKE GROWS

25,000 Out at Lawrence, But Conflicts With the Police Are Few

Lawrence, Mass., Feb. 5—The strike of the textile operatives here to obtain 54 hours' pay for 48 hours work, grew today. It was estimated last night that in the city's 12 mills not more than 5,000 of the 30,000 workers were at their places. The other 25,000 were divided between strikers, persons forced out of work by closing of mills or departments and those who stayed away to avoid trouble. All the mills except the Everett opened their gates. The print works of the Pacific mills was closed tonight until Monday.

The strikers presented active picket lines yesterday but conflicts with workers or the police were few. In one instance a shot was fired by a mounted officer, who said he was menaced by the crowd. He was subsequently suspended.

Conduct of the strike yesterday became a local matter, in the hands of the general committee, which renounced any connection with the American Federation of Labor, the United Textile Workers of America and the Industrial Workers of the World.

The strikers announced plans for a general mass meeting and parade Thursday.

Passaic, N. J. Feb. 5—Eleven hundred weavers at the Gera Worsted Mills went on strike yesterday when the company failed to answer their demand for an eight-hour day, with half holiday on Saturday, and wage of 50 cents an hour. The present schedule calls for 54 hours' work a week, at 33 cents an hour.

Philadelphia Feb. 5.—About 2,000 textile workers of this city were locked out when they reported for work yesterday.

The workers are those who have been demanding a 48 hour week and who quit Monday when they had completed an eight hour day.

There are about 100,000 textile workers in the city. The majority of the manufacturers, according to the statement of the United Textile Workers Union, have agreed to the demands of the workers.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our dear son, Clarence E. Woolls, who departed this life one year ago today.

Dear little hands, I miss them so
All through the day wherever I go
All through the night how lonely it seems
For no little hands wake me out of my dreams.

I miss them all through the weary hours
I miss them as others do sunshine and flowers
Day time or night time wherever I go,
Dear little hands I miss them so.

By his father and mother.

SUSPECTS RELEASED

Two Men Arrested in Spottsylvania This Afternoon Face Miss Garrett —Not The Men She Says After Which She Swooned.

A telegram was received by Chief of Police Goods shortly after 6 o'clock last night from Sheriff C. A. Carner, Spottsylvania, in which he stated that a soldier and a civilian were being held by the authorities at that place.

Police Sergeant William J. Wilkinson was on duty at the time, at once telegraphed to hold the men and later Sheriff Allison was notified of the arrest.

The sheriff accompanied by Deputy Cross left at 7 o'clock this morning for Fredericksburg where Sheriff Carner had the prisoners.

The attack on Miss Garrett took place shortly before 6 o'clock last Sunday evening near Seminary Station, Fairfax county, three miles west of Alexandria.

Miss Garrett had only a short time before detrained from a southbound train and proceeded to walk to her home about a mile distant.

She first was attacked by a soldier and afterward by a civilian.

Since the attack the authorities of Fairfax county have worked hard in running down clews and the first arrest in the case made was the two suspects taken in custody in Spotsylvania.

The two suspects a soldier and a civilian arrested late yesterday afternoon at Spottsylvania, tweleve miles from Fredericksburg, Va., on suspicion of being able to throw some light on the attack on Miss Julia May Garrett, which occurred last Sunday afternoon, were brought here at 3.30 o'clock this afternoon by Sheriff John R. Allison, of Fairfax and his deputy, Harvey Cross.

Miss Garrett faced both suspects at the union railway station and after viewing them carefully informed the authorities that they were not the men who attacked her.

The young woman, however, swooned after looking at the suspects for more than a minute. She soon, however, revived, after being given a glass of water. The strain proved too great for her.

The handcuffs immediately were removed from the two men and Sheriff Allison at once released them and furnished them tickets to Fredericksburg.

Only a few persons were in the little waiting station when the suspects were lined up before Miss Garrett.

Miss Garrett was accompanied to the railway station by her mother, Mrs. R. E. Frinks, a brother, J. W. Garrett, sixteen years old, and H. W. Stanton.

Only those interested were admitted to the room where the suspects faced Miss Garrett. A small crowd of railroad employes and others who got wind of what was going on gathered and peered into the windows of the waiting room.

Miss Garrett will be able to identify her assailants. The Fairfax authorities propse to continue the search despite the fact that three days have passed since the attack and there has been on tangible clew unearthed thus far.

Sheriff Allison said this afternoon that when he first saw the men he did not think they were the assailants of Miss Garrett, as they did not tally with the description furnished.

Greatest comedy night in the history of the Grand Theatre tomorrow. Charlie Chaplin, "Fatty" Arbuckle, Mark Swain and Chester Conklin in side splitting acts.

He fought the animal as best he could and finally succeeded in getting his knife out of his pocket. Opening the blade with his teeth he made an effort to cut the coon's throat, but the beast had so badly lacerated his arm and hand that it was almost impossible for the old gentleman to subdue him. WILLS ALL TO WOMAN

She Lent Miner $100 and Gets Estate Including $30,000 Cash

Douglass, Ariz., Feb. 5.—Charles Montgomery, who some time ago died in Cananea, Mexico, after years spent in mining, mainly in Mexico, left his estate, including $30,000 in cash, deposited in the bank of Bisbee, rAiz., to a benefactress whe lent him $100 years ago, according to a will recently discovered.

The will bequeathed such property and money as he would leave at his death to Florence Renshaw, now Mrs. Bowden, of Piedmont, W. Va., granddaughter of a woman with whom Montgomery lodged when a boy. He went to Mexico where he made enough money to return to the Chicago Exposition in 1893. Losing his money, he returned to his old home in West Virginia almost penniless. There he found his old friend dead, but from her granddaughter accepted the loan of about $100 money she had saved from teaching school.

After three years came a card from Guadalajara, Mexico, that told the lebt would be paid soon. But it was seven years before the wanderer again was heard from. This news came in a registered letter from Denver, containing three $100 bills and the will now in evidence.

DESTROYING PROPERTY

Among the cases in the Police Court this morning was that of a negro who was charged with destroying property belonging to the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company and that of adjoining property owners by breaking boards from a shed and a fence. The testimony showed that the darkey did what many others do when in want of firewood—seize anything in the way of combustibles which may be close at hand, no matter what damages may accrue to the owners of property. According to the estimate of a builder, an expenditure of about fifty dollars will be necessary to replace the fence and shed. The accused was assessed fifty dollars, and should he fail to pay the same he will serve the next ninety days on the chain gang.

Destruction of fencing, sheds, etc., during the winter season is chronic in Alexandria. Of ten unoccupied houses are entered by persons residing nearby and flooring torn up and used for fire wood. But a few of such vandals are caught, but it may be stated that when the facts are clearly proven persons guilty of such depredations will be made to pay in full should they be brought before the court.

There is another class of vandalism which goes on in all seasons, that is the carrying away of water and gas fixtures from houses. Not only will the thieves be handled according to law, but those having such articles in their possesion can be sent on to the grand jury by the Police Court.

TAKES ISSUE WITH MEDE

The book of Esther, one of the most interesting in the sacred canon, tells us that the Medean king Ahasuerus, during a royal banquet which lasted several days, ordered Vashti, his queen, to appear before the revellers in order that her charms might be displayed to the guests. Vashti refused to obey, which act caused great depression not only to the king, but to those who sat with him. Here was an issue which must be settled at once. Is a man supreme in his own household? The king had been defied, and every woman in Shushan who might hear of the incident was likely to rebel against her liege lord's commands After consultation with his advisers, Ahasuerus made a decree, according to the laws of the Medes and Persians, that Vashti be deposed and every man given to understand that he must bear rule in his own household. A Pennsylvania judge, however, reverses the decision of the Persian ruler.

Whatever a man says in his own home goes—if his wife agrees with him, said Judge George Kunkel, of the Dauphin County Court, Monday, in deciding that a husband may not make an appeal that he is accorded "cruel and barbarous" treatment by his wife.

"A man has full rights in his own home against everybody but his wife," announced the Court. "But when she starts something it is the husband's business to beat a retreat. When a man puts a wife in his house he cannot complain about her treatment. He had a large field to draw from."

The plaintiff complained that his wife kicked his shins until the blood ran down his legs. The Court observed that it was time for him to get his legs out of range.

FEBRUARY, 1918 AND 1919

With food prices dropping, all restrictions on the consumption and distribution of coal removed, the weather of springlike mildness and the army of 4,000,000 young men rapidly returning to the paths of peace, an exchange directs attention to February, 1919, which offers a striking contrast to the corresponding month a year ago. It is not too much to say that the winter of 1917-18 was in all probability a more uncomfortable and depressing period than the present generation will ever be called upon to face again.

Beside natural reactions from the war, such as strikes, Bolshevism, standpattism and the like, the prospect is bright for cheaper and more abundant food, for work enough for all and for a gradual steadying down to a normal pace in the industrial and practical world. The upheaval caused by over four years of war is gradually subsiding. For the United States the future is full of promise.

SENATOR SOUNDS ALARM

Criticizing a meeting in Washington Sunday at which the Russian Soviet was praised, Senator Thomas, Colorado, Democrat, declared in the Senate yesterday that a powerful organization, which he did not name, was constantly at work to overthrow the American government.

Declaring that he wished to protest against such meetings, especially in the nation's capital, Senator Thomas said such assemblies were "held under the guise of free speech and advocated what is virtually treason.

"I want to warn the plain people of this country," continued the Senator, "that a powerful organizaion is always active to overthrow the Government and erect a Government of anarchists, thieves and scoundrels.

"Now in the Nation's capital, this monster raises its head, utters its treason and counsels overthrow of the Government."

TIME IS THE TEST.

The Testimony of Alexandria People Stands the Test.

The test of time is what tells the tale. The public soon finds out when misrepresentations are made, and merit alone will stand the test of time.

Alexandria people appreciate merit, and many months ago local citizens publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills; they do so still. Would a citizen make the statement which follows unless convinced that the article was just as represented? Below is testimony such as the sufferer from Kidney ills is looking for.

Mrs. G. W. Davis, 107 Prince St., Alexandria, says: "Doctors treated me for along while and pronounced my case of kidney trouble a severe one. Often I felt so listless and nervous, I almost gave up hope. Doan's Kidney Pills brought me relief after everything failed. Doan's strengthened my kidneys and removed the trouble."

THREE YEARS LATER Mrs. Davis added: "I still take Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally when my kidneys don't act as they should. I always get quick relief."

Price 60c., at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Davis had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Thomas Lewis, a negro, of Mecklenburg county, died on Thursday at Keysville at the age of 106. He was born there in 1812, and during his slave days he succeeded in accummulating money, which helped to provide for him in his old age.

The first German subject to reach America since the United States declared war on Germany, according to the belief of immigration officials of Newport News, came in yesterday morning on the Dutch steamer Poeldyk. The German stowaway is being held by immigration officials who say they do not know what to do with him, and have taken the matter up with Washington. The man has papers which show him to be a subject of Germany. He has been in Holland for several years.

Grim, gray and majestic, their turrets bristling with guns that a few weeks ago defied the Hun, a fleet of ten super Dreadnoughts, one Dreadnought and three pre-Dreadnoughts with a number of attendant vessels now ride at anchor in Hampton Roads awaiting their cruise to Guantanamo for winter maneuvers and target practice. The fleet is commanded by Vice Admiral Mayo, and is composed of the battleships, Pennsylvania, flagship; Utah, Nevada, Oklahoma, Texas, Mississippi, Nebraska, Wyoming, Florida, Louisiana, Connecticut, Michigan, Arkansas and Arizona. The repair ship Vestal, the largest vessel of its kind in the world, is also with the fleet. The battleships will leave today for Guantanamo.

MAKES DEBT CONCESSION

Virginia Willing to Let West Virginia Hold Bonds to Cover Lost Certificates

Charleston, W. Va., Feb. 5—What he declared was Virginia's final concession to West Virginia to secure a settlement of the Virginia debt case was presented to a joint session of the legislature here yesterday by Randolph Harrison, counsel for Virginia, in acceptance of the fourth point of the proposed terms of settlement, providing that West Virginia should hold in her treasury bonds to cover $1,000,000 in certificates of indebtedness, which have been lost

The other three points, upon which both States have agreed, were made public for the first time today by Mr. Harrison. They provided:

First—That West Virginia should make her payment in bonds instead of floating a bond issue and paying the cash thereby secured, and the payment of $1,100,000 in cash additional.

Second—That the rate of interest the bonds should bear would be 3 1-2 per cent instead of 5 per cent, now accruing on the principal.

Third—That the bonds should run for a period of twenty years in order to make the settlement as easy as possible.

Under these terms of settlement, to be agreed upon by the legislature, West Virginia would pay $1,100,000 in cash and $13,400,000 in 3 1-2 per cent bonds, less the $1,000,000 in bonds to be held in the West Virginia treasury against the lost certificates which never have been delivered by Virginia.

B. AND O. MEN LAID OFF

Reported 30 Per Cent. Of Hands Temporarily Forced Out of Jobs

Cumberland, Md., Feb. 5—Due to the drop in the volume of business the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad has laid off, but only temporarily, it is believed, about 30 per cent. of its trainmen. This information came from a reliable source. The men furloughed include engineers, firemen and brakemen. Some engineers who have been at the throttle two years, having been promoted at about the time this country started in the war, have been put back to firing. They either had to accept this or be without employment.

SNOWDEN TO HANG FEB. 28.

Convicted of Murdering Annapolis Woman, Negro Still Denies Guilt

Annapolis, Md., Feb. 5—John Snowden, the Annapolis negro whose conviction of murder Mrs. Lottie May Brandon was sustained by the court of appeals, heard the death warrant read to him yesterday afternoon. The day of execution has been fixed by Gov. Harrington as February 28.

At the conclusion of the reading the negro repeated his protestations of innocence, repeating his former expression: "If God were to come down to this jail He would tell you I am innocent. I never went in the woman's house and I never spoke a word to her in my life."

LABOR PROBLEM

Harder Allies Press Down on Russian Bolsheviks More Doctrine Spreads.

Paris, Feb. 5.—The greatest and most difficult problems before the Peace Conference are thos of Russia and labor. The two seem to be allied closely.

Despite reports received here by way of Geneva that the Bolsheviki now have 1,000,000 men under arms and soon will have 1,000,000 more, the fear felt here is not of Russian arms, but of spread of Russian ideas.

By blockading Russia, shutting off the supply of munitions, the Bolshevik army would be quickly rendered powerless for purposes of armed aggression. But the difficulty is that the harder the allies press down on Russia, the more widespread may become Russia's propaganda in other parts of the world.

Labor unrest is now world wide, according to reports pouring into Paris. In England and France the situation is becoming disquieting. In the Central countries it is bad.

Putting down Bolshevism in Russia wouldn't save the situation. Labor elsewhere would also have to be considered, dealt with and reasonably satisfied.

That a Soviet is in charge of the labor situation in Belfast doesn't mean that the labor elements of Belfast are Bolshevistic. On the contrary, members of President Wilson's party who made a study of Belfast labor conditions recently, found that the labor classes of that city are not even Socialistic, but they have grievances which the present system of government has failed to adjust.
